CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, HAPUR

The approval of the Deputy Director, Forward Markets Commission, under sub-section (i) of Section 11 of the Forward Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1952 (74 of 1952), read with the Government of India, Ministry of Commerce & Industry notification No. S.O. 1162 dated the 4th May, 1960 has been obtained on 23-6-1987 to the following amendments made to the Bye-Laws of the Chamber of Commerce, Hapur, the same having been notified under section 11 of the said Act and Rule 11 of the Forward Contracts (Regulation) Rules, 1954.

AMENDMENTS

(I) For the existing Bye-Law 193, the following shall be substituted, namely :—

- "193 (a) (i) If the seller had issued the delivery order, but had failed to give the delivery of the goods for whatever reasons, then the seller shall pay a penalty of Rs. 4/- per 40 kg. (Rs. 10/- per 100 kg.) to the buyer.
- (ii) If the seller had issued the delivery order and had tendered the goods against it, but the goods were rejected in Survey, then the seller shall pay penalty of Rs. 4/- per 40 kg. (Rs. 10/- per 100 Kg.) to the buyer.
- (iii) If the seller, holding an outstanding sales position during the delivery period, had not issued the delivery order, but had agreed or was prevailed upon by the Chamber to give delivery of the goods to a buyer (who had issued or not issued the demand notice), but had failed to give the delivery of the goods, then the seller shall pay a penalty of Rs. 1/- per 40 kg (Rs. 2.50 per 100 Kg.) to the buyer.
- (b) In the Hedge Contract, if the seller wishes to give delivery, he will on the 4th, 5th or 6th of the delivery month inform the Chamber by 12 noon by sending the delivery order to the office of the Chamber definitely stating the number of the godowns and the number of kattas/bags contained therein. The Chamber will send these delivery orders to the purchasers the same night. If any of the purchasers is not available in the night, he will have to accept the delivery order by 12 noon next day and shall be deemed to have received on the previous date. The purchaser after depositing one fifth of the value of the goods will inspect the quality within 48 hours. But, if the seller does not give delivery of the goods within the prescribed time after issuing the delivery order, he shall pay a penalty to the buyer as indicated in clause (a) above, in addition to the right of the purchaser to purchase the goods on his account. If the goods are rejected by the Survey Committee, the seller shall be required to pay a penalty to the buyer as indicated in clause (a) above. In addition, the delivery order shall be treated as cancelled. If there is any dispute about the quality of the goods tendered, the buyer may, if he so desires, have the sample of kattas/bags sealed by the representative of the Chamber. The seller shall be responsible if such sealed kattas/bags are removed from the godowns or the seals are broken, and in such a case the tendered goods shall be considered as rejected and the seller shall be required to pay a penalty to the buyer as indicated in clause (a) above. If the seller does not deliver the goods against the demand notice issued by the buyer or if the offered goods be not available with him or the goods are rejected by the Survey Committee, the seller shall pay to the buyer a penalty indicated in clause (a) above (depending upon the nature of the failure), in addition to the right of the buyer to purchase the goods on account of the seller in the open market in accordance with the provisions laid down below. The purchaser will send the information about the intention of purchasing the goods from the market after the stipulated period has expired by 12 noon next day. The Chamber shall put up a notice on the notice Board by 2 P.M. the same day about the proposed purchase and shall invite offer from the prospective sellers, who are the members of the Chamber and the location of the goods alongwith the names of the outside dealer if the goods are situated in outside mandies. It will be intimated to the dealers offering the goods that 10% of the cost of the goods offered must accompany the offers. If the offers are found to be bogus, half of this money will be forfeited and the other half given to the purchaser. Offers can only be made of the good stocked in Hapur or in mandies given in the schedule A. If the number of offers is more than the demand order, the offer at the lowest rate will be accepted. If the offers are less than the demand order the purchaser shall be entitled to purchase the goods in Hapur or in mandies mentioned in Schedule A in the seller's account. In case the offered goods are rejected or if the offers are bogus, the purchaser shall be entitled to purchase against the goods so offered from the open market and the tenderer of the offer shall be required to pay a penalty to the purchaser as indicated in clause (a) above and in addition shall be responsible for making goods the loss to the purchaser. If there is any dispute about the quality of the goods tendered, the buyer may, if he so desires, have the sample kattas/bags sealed by a representative of the Chamber. The seller shall be responsible, if such sealed kattas/bags are removed from the godown or the seals are broken and in such case the tendered goods shall be considered as rejected. The decision of the Survey Committee in case of dispute shall be binding on both the parties. If any party is not satisfied with the decision of the Survey Committee, he will have a right of appeal to the Appellate Committee in accordance with the rules of the Chamber, whose decision shall be final and binding on the parties."

(II) For the existing Bye-Law 194, the following shall be substituted namely :—

- "194(a) (i) If the buyer had issued the demand notice, but had failed to take the delivery of the goods for whatever reason, then the buyer shall pay a penalty of Rs. 4/- per 40 kg. (Rs. 10/- per 100 kg.) to the seller.
- (ii) If the buyer had issued the demand notice and the goods tendered against it by the seller were approved in Survey, but the buyer had not taken or refused to take the delivery of the goods, then the buyer shall pay a penalty of Rs. 4/- per 40 kg. (Rs. 10/- per 100 kg.) to the seller.
- (iii) If the buyer, holding an outstanding purchase position during the delivery period, had not issued the demand notice, but had agreed or was prevailed upon by the Chamber to take the delivery of the goods from a seller (who has issued or not issued the delivery order), but had failed to take the delivery of the goods, then the buyer shall pay a penalty of Rs. 1/- per 40 kg. (Rs. 2.50 per 100 kg.) to the seller.

(b) In the Hedge Contract, if the purchaser wants to take delivery, he will on the 4th, 5th and 6th of the delivery month inform the Chamber in writing by 12 noon of his intention to demand delivery by sending demand notice along with one-fourth value of the goods demanded. The Chamber will send the demand notice to the sellers the same evening. But if any seller is not available in the evening, he shall have to accept these demand notices by 12 noon the next day and it shall be deemed to have been received by him on the previous day. The seller within 3 days of the receipt of such demand notice shall inform the purchaser about the exact location of goods and of the name of the stockists in case the goods are out of Hapur. The purchaser will inspect the goods within two days. If the purchaser does not inspect the goods within the specified period, the quality of the goods shall be treated as tenderable. If, on the inspection of goods, there is any dispute about the quality of goods, both of the parties shall get the goods surveyed according to Survey Rules within two days. After the goods have been surveyed and passed by the Survey Committee, the purchaser will take the delivery of the goods within 3 days after depositing the unpaid balance of the total value of the goods. If the purchaser does not take the delivery of the goods within 3 days, the seller shall intimate the Chamber by 12 noon about the location of the goods. The Chamber, on the receipt of the information, shall fix up the time for sale of these goods on account of the buyer in the open market and paste a notice on the notice board of the Chamber by

2 P.M. and shall also send one of its clerks to the place, where the sale is to be effected. If there is any loss to the seller, the purchaser shall make it good. In addition, the purchaser shall be required to pay a penalty to the seller as indicated in clause (a) above (depending upon the nature of the failure of the purchaser). If there is any dispute about the quality of the goods tendered, the purchaser may, if he so desires, have the sample kattas/bags sealed by representative of the Chamber. The seller shall be responsible, if such sealed kattas/bags are removed from godowns or the seals are broken and in such case the tendered goods shall be considered as rejected. The decision of the Survey Committee in case of dispute shall be binding on both the parties. If any party is not satisfied with the decision of the Survey Committee, he will have a right of appeal to the Appellate Committee in accordance with the rules of the Chamber whose decision shall be final and binding on the parties."

(III) For the existing Bye-Law 194 A(iii), the following shall be substituted, namely :—
